WIRELESS CONTROL FROM ANY PLACE IN THE WORLD

Imagine that...

Rain and thunderstorms are coming and you are 100 km away from the house...
you press a button on a phone screen [CLOSE THE WINDOW] and...

Your child has forgotten the keys to the house and you are at work...
you press the button
[OPEN THE DOOR] and...

You are going away for the summer, without Internet access, and you want your house to be vent occasionally...
you program a schedule,
and your windows and blinds react to weather conditions....

You are calm about your home and its residents!
